

SafeWork

Working together to keep employees safe and protect the bottom line

Safe Horizon & USI Holdings Corporation

Present

Safe Work

Working together to keep employees safe and protect the bottom line

Bar Americain

Wednesday, October 19, 2005
8 am to 9:30 am

Bobby Flay

Chef, restaurateur and cookbook author

Stephanie March

Safe Horizon Board Member, film, television and stage actor

David L. Eslick

Chairman, President and CEO, USI Holdings Corporation

Gordon J. Campbell

CEO, Safe Horizon

(Un)Safe

An Original Production

Linda Fairstein

Safe Horizon Board Member, best-selling crime novelist and legal expert on domestic violence

Paul R. Charron

Chairman & CEO, Liz Claiborne, Inc.

Cesar L. Alvarez

President and CEO, Greenberg Traurig, LLP

Kimberly Wells

Executive Director, Corporate Alliance to End Partner Violence

Brooke McMurray

Safe Horizon Board Chair

PROTECT. MANAGE. GROW.

moving victims of violence from crisis to confidence

Plays for Living

Presents

An Original Production

(Un)Safe

Directed by Carmen Mathis

Written by Yolanda N. Spears

C A S T

(In order of appearance)

“Shelly”Ginger Grace
“Jeffrey”Ron Piretti
“Janice”Gina Ojile
“Jerome”James Prendergast

CHARACTERS

Shelly: the wife, mother and Senior Account Executive

Jeffrey: the husband, father, and business executive

Janice: a co-worker of Shelly

Jerome: Vice President at Shelly and Janice’s office

Speakers

Cesar L. Alvarez, President and CEO of Greenberg Traurig. Since 1997, Alvarez has led Greenberg Traurig, an international law firm with 1,500 attorneys and governmental professionals in 32 locations in the United States, Europe and Asia. Prior to becoming CEO of the firm, he practiced securities, corporate and international law for more than 25 years. Alvarez has represented numerous public companies and serves on the board of directors of several publicly-traded corporations and charitable organizations.

Gordon J. Campbell, CEO of Safe Horizon, the nation's leading victim assistance organization. Campbell formerly served as the Commissioner of the New York City Department of Homeless Services, the Chief of Staff to New York City's First Deputy Mayor, Deputy Director of the Mayor's Office of Operations, the Director of the Human Resources Administration's Division of AIDS Services, and he was a Mayoral appointee to the City's Procurement Policy Board.

Paul R. Charron, Chairman and CEO of Liz Claiborne Inc. Prior to joining Liz Claiborne he was the executive vice president of VF Corporation. He is a Director of the Campbell Soup Company, The Partnership for New York City and Vital Voices Global Partnership. In addition, Charron is a member of the American Society of Corporate Executives.

David L. Eslick, Chairman, President and CEO of USI Holdings Corporation ("USI"). Eslick also served as President and COO of USI. He was named one of Business Insurance's 35 Rising Stars. Prior to USI, Eslick was President of Rauh Financial Services and, ultimately, President of ABI/Frederick Rauh & Company. He serves on the board of the Council of Insurance Agents & Brokers and is a member of the Young President's Organization.

Linda Fairstein, Safe Horizon Board Member, legal expert of crimes of violence against women and children. For three decades she served as Chief of the Sex Crimes Prosecution Unit in the office of the New York County District Attorney. She is the author of a series of crime novels featuring Manhattan prosecutor Alex Cooper and is also the author of the non-fiction work Sexual Violence: Our War Against Rape, a New York Times 'Notable Book of the Year' in 1994.

Bobby Flay, chef/restaurateur, cookbook author, and television personality. His restaurants include Mesa Grill, Bolo, Bar Americain and Mesa Grill Caesars Palace. Working closely with young chefs from Long Island City High School, Flay personally selects students to be annual scholarship recipients at his alma mater, the French Culinary Institute. In 2005, Flay received a James Beard Foundation Award for National Television Food Show for his Food Network special "Bobby Flay: Chef Mentor."

Stephanie March, Safe Horizon Board Member, TV film and stage actor seen in "Head of State," "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" and Broadway's "Death of a Salesman."

Brooke McMurray, Safe Horizon Board Chair. McMurray is a former publishing industry executive and passionate advocate for the sufferers and survivors of domestic violence. Before her retirement from publishing, in 2000, McMurray had a 26-year career at Time Incorporated where she held several executive positions related to the launching and marketing of more than 30 magazines including People, In Style, Time, Sports Illustrated and Fortune.

Plays for Living creates and performs issue-based dramas which allow audiences to explore topical and challenging subjects safely, through character and role-play situation, bringing the unspoken out in the open. Corporations, civic organizations, correctional facilities and hospitals have used or commissioned original works from Plays for Living to communicate training, educational and group dynamic concepts.

Kimberly Wells, Executive Director of the Corporate Alliance to End Partner Violence. The Alliance is a leading force in the fight against domestic violence, and is the only national organization of its kind founded by business leaders and focused on the workplace. Wells is a frequent speaker and guest lecturer on partner violence and the workplace, workplace violence, organizational ethics and leadership.